

homefront

Expert Tips, News and Happenings from Chicago's Home Improvement Community

COMPILED BY TRICIA DESPRES

Photo courtesy of Merchandise Mart

Plain & Fancy Cabinetry Opens Its First Stand-Alone Showroom

The Merchandise Mart's famed LuxeHome area is now the home to Plain & Fancy Custom Cabinetry's first stand-alone showroom. The 43-year-old family-run cabinet company is known for its handcrafted workmanship and a wide range of superior products, and its new showroom is called Plain & Fancy by Dandamudi's. The 2,080-square-foot location will offer homeowners and design professionals a closer look at the company's luxurious custom cabinetry. "We have been furnishing some of the most discriminating homes in the area, and we're proud to offer our clientele luxury custom cabinetry that's made in America," says Sarita Dandamudi, owner of Plain & Fancy by Dandamudi's. To learn more, call (800) 447-9006 or visit www.plainfancycabinets.com.