Saturday, in the Mart,
You'd think it was the 15th of October
Saturday, in the Mart,
I'm sure it's the 15th of October
De Giulio demo-ing, people tasting,
Dream2O having raffles
Selling Italian faucets.
Can you dig it? (yes I can)
Have you been waiting such a long time
For this day?
Will you let designers help you change your world?

(Apologies to all members and fans of the band Chicago.) In honor of National Kitchen and Bath month (that would be October—did you get my greeting card?), LuxeHome has organized this weekend's Shop This Saturday open house, featuring the unveiling of more than 40 new products, complimentary designer consultations, refreshments, and mini-massages. Thirty showrooms are participating from 10–3, and it's free and open to the public. I can dig it.
