Fine Design At NeoCon Presents Renowned Keynote Speaker, Innovative Seminars, New Product Debuts

Fine Design hosts keynote speaker Gary Lee, innovative seminars, new product debuts and more at Neocon.

Fine Design offers attendees the opportunity to explore the best in custom home furnishings and interior design throughout the Design Center in the Merchandise Mart's permanent residential showrooms on floors 6, 15, 16, 17 and 18, as well as the finest kitchen, bath and building products in LuxeHome on the 1st floor. Education seminars, showroom events, new product debuts, design inspiration and networking with over 40,000 industry professionals are what can be expected at the event.

Fine Design Keynote

Tuesday, June 12 | 1:00 p.m. | Gary Lee, DeBiasi Library, Room 1520 | Registration
North Lobby, Suite 137

Gary Lee, an interior design visionary, has earned accolades and rewards that include the prestigious Interior Designer of the Year and membership in the highly selective Interior Design Hall of Fame. With his innate ability to communicate a vision for projects, Lee begins the design process with a sense of how the environment will function for the client's business, how the space will feel, and in planning that considers rhythm and volume before style.

The event is free to attend and sponsored by Knoll.

Residential Track CEU Seminars

Monday, June 11 | 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. | Four Powerful Strategies to Pricing and Profiting from an Interior Design Job | M119

When you learn to price your time accurately, creating income is easier than you think. Figure out how much you should charge per hour for your design services and get the basics down so you never have to wonder if you are over or under-charging. Identify the three spots to look for profit in your interior design business. And consider why you should charge a fee for a complete design job rather than billing per hour for some projects. The discussion includes the advantages of different types of product mark-ups and margins and creating additional income streams from merchandise that you cannot mark up. [Intermediate] [RES] [PD]

Speaker: Teresa Taylor, ASID, IIDA, IDS, IFDA, is president and creative director of Taylor Design Group in Tucson, Arizona.

Monday, June 11 | 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. | 20th and 21st Century Handcrafted Wall Coverings | M129

Get an overview of 20th and 21st century wall coverings, illustrating the canon of work, trends and usage. From block printing to hand painting to inlaid materials to natural fibers to fine art and beyond, come explore the world of handcrafted wall coverings and learn how they have evolved. Discuss practical design applications and examine the various methods of manufacturing. Finish with a live wallpaper making demonstration by artisans. Get an in-depth exposure to these remarkable design ideas, and leave with enhanced product knowledge you can use in future projects. [Intermediate] [HOSP] [RES] [HSW]

Speaker: Joyce Romanoff, IIDA, ASID, NEWH, is president of Maya Romanoff in Skokie, Illinois.

Monday, June 11 | 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. | Foresight Interiors 2014 | M139

Foresight is an introduction to the four leading design themes for 2014. It represents the overall macro trends that are influencing and defining the thoughts that will shape the season. Interlinked and interwoven, each theme is impacted by the other yet each is also important in its own right. Discover what will define the essential DNA for design this season, including how to translate key elements from four leading themes into innovative design directive; how current and evolving consumer behaviors impact and effect the essential design elements of 2014 and the color palettes, materials, and finishes that will be essential to these trends. [Intermediate] [RES]

Speaker: Jamie Thomas is a trend director of Stylesight in New York, New York.

Monday, June 11 | 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. | Future Color Trends: Fantasies and Realities | M149

In order to create “magic” for interiors, the colors for 2013 will need to coax and cajole, soothe or astonish, renew and replenish. At the same time, there will be the consumer’s expectation of practicality – what colors have staying power and can be relied upon as a steadying influence in unsteady times. Skillfully balanced color palettes that play to their practical side, while satisfying their aspirations, hopes and needs for something novel will remain key to enticing the would-be consumer or client. [Intermediate] [RES] [PD] [HSW]

Speaker: Leatrice Eiseman, ASID, IDSA, FGI, CMG, is the executive director of the Pantone Color Institute in Bainbridge Island, Washington.

Tuesday, June 12 | 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. | Designing for Today's Clientele| T259

Learn from a residential design expert who will discuss clients in today’s marketplace. Hear the tips and techniques you need to implement for clients who want the look of an award winning home (on a budget!). Find out how to deal with clients who are avid HGTV fans (having taped the shows since they began!). Learn how to build quality design and sustainability into your projects, and review the art of simple seasonal changes that create new color palettes and accents. We’ll cover many essentials including “pet and kid proofing” (while pleasing the in-laws and the world!). [Intermediate] [RES]

Speaker: Suzanne Levin-Lapides, ASID, is a design associate for Louis Mazor, Inc. in Baltimore, Maryland.

Tuesday, June 12 | 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. | LEED Platinum for Restaurants: Reaching the Next Level| T269

Restaurants use a tremendous amount of energy and water. But new design strategies have emerged to improve their energy efficiency and environmental performance. Find out what these strategies are that you can use to get your next project to LEED Platinum. Through a case study of a major renovation job, see what efforts, products, and work got the project certified. Learn the specific design strategies that integrate the guest experience into environmental performance. Gain a better understanding of the LEED Platinum certification process so when the next project comes your way, you're ready to go. [Intermediate] [HOSP] [ENV] [HSW]

Speaker: David Loehr, AIA, LEED AP BD+C, is a partner of HGA in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Rachelle Schoessler Lynn, FASID, CID, LEED AP BD+C, is a senior associate for Meyer Scherer & Rockcastle in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Tuesday, June 12 | 3:00. to 4:00 p.m. | LALIQUE, Defining Excellence | T289

Expand your knowledge and appreciation of LALIQUE'S extensive history within the world of interior design, beginning at the turn of the century with its founder Rene LALIQUE through the widespread range of projects that LALIQUE is commissioned for today. Starting with the panels that adorned the first-class cabins of the Orient Express and the lighting for the famed Normandie, LALIQUE today continues to evolve with projects like Oceania's luxury cruise liner Marina and through partnerships with Studio Andrée Putman. Following the seminar you are invited to a champagne reception in the LALIQUE Showroom, #1867. [Basic] [RES] [PD]

Speaker: Craig Zehms, brand ambassador, Lalique, New York, New York.

Wednesday, June 13 | 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. | Market Smart: Make a Big Splash for Little Cash | W319

Wednesday, June 13 | 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. | Discovering the Secrets of the Masters to Energize a Space | W329

Many of the masters of art and architecture, including Michelangelo, da Vinci and Vitruvius, knew that the energy in a space affects every aspect in life, including relationships, finances, and health. For thousands of years, the masters have kept this secret knowledge in certain circles, applying it to art, buildings and other monuments to transform negative energy and generate beneficial energy. You can discover some of this knowledge and learn some of the basic principles of energetic geometry and other powerful techniques to design a room, furniture, art objects, and fabrics that will help create a healing and nurturing environment for you and your clients. Come discuss the top five mistakes that designers, architects and builders make that produce problems in their clients' health, including insomnia, tension and anxiety. Get the real secret behind the Golden Ratio. The session includes many basic lessons in space planning as well as specific numbers, colors, and energizing techniques you can use to create balanced, nurturing and beneficial environments. [Intermediate] [RES] [HSW]
