Food, wine and high design, were on tap at the Fifth Annual Chill International Wine & Culinary Event. Over 2000 guests attended the fundraising gala, which featured live music from the Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestra, wines from "Wine Spectator" magazine and food from top Chicago chefs. The evening, hosted by Luxehomes at the Merchandise Mart, proved to be a huge success – raising over $100,000 for three wonderful charities: The Lynn Sage Foundation (www.lynnsagefoundation.org), Respiratory Health Association of Metropolitan Chicago (www.lungchicago.org), and the Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestra (www.cyso.org).

“This event is Chicago at its finest,” said attendee Lisa Roth, a Chicago native who recently moved back from Los Angeles. “Walking around the "Mart," looking at the magnificent showrooms and meeting tons of interesting and friendly people are all good reminders of why I love this city.” To find out more about the event visit <http://www.luxehome.com/chill/eventinformation/galleries>.
