Chicago - The Shade Store, a manufacturer of couture window treatments for more than 60 years, has opened a state-of-the-art boutique in Suite 105 at LuxeHome on the first floor of the Merchandise Mart here.

LuxeHome is the world's largest collection of premier boutiques for home building and renovation.

With the new Chicago location, the New York based, third generation family-run business operates nine stand-alone showrooms across the country.

"We are thrilled to be a part of LuxeHome and look forward to assisting customers with all of their window treatment needs," said co-founder and creative director Ian Gibbs.
