Bentwood Luxury Kitchens Expands

July 08, 2010

Bentwood Luxury Kitchens is opening a boutique at LuxeHome in Chicago in November 2010. The 1,500-sq.-ft. space will feature products from the cabinetry company, which was founded in 1989.

Bentwood Luxury Kitchens began when Randy Pittard and Wyman Stewart combined their 30 years of experience in kitchen design to open a custom designed cabinet and furniture shop in Lancaster, Texas. Ten years later, Kevin Bryant joined the management team, and Bentwood embarked on a period of expansion.

Located on the first floor of Chicago's Merchandise Mart, LuxeHome offers a collection of boutiques tailored to the home building and renovation field. In addition to Bentwood's new Chicago location, the company maintains more than 60 dealerships throughout North America.
